

Have you heard that the Olympic Torch is coming to Newmarket? Think you might want to take part in this historical celebration?

Here are 10 reasons why you should come to the Olympic Torch event on December 18 at 9:45 a.m.:

1. Be a part of the Torch's 45,000 km trip through Canada.
2. Mark your place in history as a contributor to the Olympic Flame's longest domestic relay ever.
3. Raise spirit and Canadian pride for our Olympic athletes.
4. Celebrate the unity of nations that the Olympics bring.
5. Join in on fun-filled entertainment and activities.
6. Take advantage of the opportunity for our community to demonstrate its character to the world.
7. Be a part of a celebration that recognizes our local talent.
8. Show pride for our town, country and the Olympic Games.
9. Help line the streets to support our hometown hero, Torchbearer Clare Kowaltschuk.
10. Be a part of a sea of red and white in celebration of the Olympics as the Torch passes through Newmarket on December 18th!
